Aspen Camp School for the Deaf - An application form for the Aspen Camp School for the Deaf is included with this week's CB. The Camp serves over 100 Deaf children per year. Scholarships are available to assist with tuition. Questions about the camp may be directed to Suzanne Guimond, Dorm Staff, (317) 924-8410 (2:30 - 10:30 pm).

"I Love You" Stamp Design Competition - The National Association of the Deaf has announced a competition for an "I Love You" Postage Stamp. Judging will take place during this summer's NAD Convention in Denver, Colorado. Three selected designs will be submitted to the United States Postal Service (USPS) for further consideration for a future stamp issuance. Each of the three selected designs will be awarded $100 by the NAD. If the USPS selects one of the designs they may consider paying a fee to the designer according to USPS guidelines. The purpose of the competition is to show the USPS that a wealth of "I Love You" ideas can be transformed into a postage stamp design, especially suited to the ongoing series of "Love" stamps.

RULES FOR THE COMPETITION:

- The competition is open to everyone, Deaf and Hearing
- Three designs will be selected, each will be awarded $100
- Each submission must be accompanied by a $10 entry fee and must be received by June 15th, 1992 (further information will be provided with the entry blanks)
- Consideration will be given to designs that convey to the general public, in a clear and distinct manner, that the "I Love You" hand sign is a bridge between Deaf and Hearing people; and on their ability to be reconfigured into the size of a postage stamp
- Judges will be announced at the competition. They will be composed of Deaf people with artistic expertise, the NAD "I Love You" Postage Stamp Committee, the NAD Executive Director, and the NAD President

For further information (including USPS design standards) and/or entry blanks (one for each design submission), send a legal sized self-addressed stamped envelope to:

Kenneth Rothschild, Chair

1st Closed-Caption TV offered by Zenith! - Zenith Electronic Corp. has raced to the marketplace with the first closed-caption television sets which eliminate the need for a separate decoder box. By July '93, all TV sets sold in America that are 13" or larger will include built-in decoding capabilities, as required by the Television Decoder Circuitry Act of 1990. Zenith's sets with built-in decoders cost $20 more than the same sets without decoding capability. TeleCaption decoder boxes continue to be available. The newest model, the VR-100, is the first portable model on the market. It is designed to be used with a VCR, cable converter box, or satellite receiver, and sells for about $130. The full sized unit, the TeleCaption 4000, will also remain available, at a cost of under $200. For information about sales outlets call (800) 533-9673.

If you have clothes, purses, shoes, etc., that you would like to donate to the poor, please send them to Kathleen Robertson. Our Special Needs classes will assist in separating all of the clothes. Let's clean out our closets for a good cause!

PTCO Day is coming again!! - But, a few changes will be made this year. This year's event is called "May Carnival Days". PTCO has made an agreement with the Indiana State Fairgrounds to hold the annual PTCO gathering on the fairgrounds in the West Pavilion! Instead of one day the event will run for three days (May 1st, 2nd, and 3rd). A professional carnival company has agreed to bring all their wonderful rides and games, and we're inviting the whole city to come and join us! Of course we will still have our traditional booths and public interest groups as well. If you or someone you know are interested in booth space, contact Teresa Schmidt via the PTCO mailbox. Booths are $35 for all three days. (For ISD campus, there is no charge for booths.)

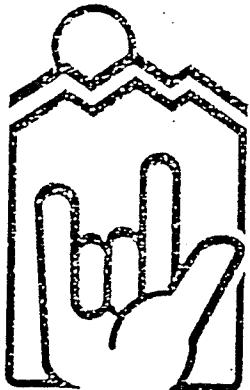

Volunteers Needed!! - Volunteers are needed (see above) for publicity, in booths, decorating, performance (storytelling, jokes, Deaf culture, Mini-ASL workshops, etc.), Art Contest, Raffle tickets & booth, Open House Guides, Creating Posters and announcements, tent/camping set-up, interpreting, and clean-up. Members of the working group are: Robert Downing, Wanda Kirby, Richard Miyamoto, Rachel Stone, Janet Stailey and Ann Titus. This working group will meet on April 8th and 15th, from 3 - 5 pm in room G42 of the Alumni Building.
